

Journal of the House

NINETY-FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the
STATE OF MISSOURI
SECOND REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 6, 2010

Speaker Richard in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Lord God, creator of heaven and earth and all things therein, as we begin the first session of this new decade, we want to first acknowledge and give thanks for Your grace and mercy which carried us through this past year. In good times or bad, You remain the same. You reign in truth and majesty.

Holy God, You are the One who gives the breath of life to everyone. May You be pleased with and may the people of this state benefit from the good we seek to do in this place. Lead us as we attempt to lead. Guide us as we provide guidance. Strengthen us as we seek to answer the tough questions before us.

So, as we move through this day and ultimately this session, we pray that You would grant us the composure, courage and wisdom to not only start well, but to finish well.

Now may You, the source of hope, grant each of these in this assembly joy, hope and confidence as they continue throughout this day, week and the months ahead.

These things I pray in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Missouri State Highway Patrol, Troop F Color Guard, presented the Colors.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER RON RICHARD

Welcome Representatives and guests to the opening of the second session of the 95th General Assembly.

Today we stand at the precipice of the future. Immense uncertainty faces all of us. We are at time in Missouri history where few have been. Let us work together as never before – times demand it.

We must never forget we sit in the people's chamber and our sacred duty as their elected officials is the maintenance of the integrity and sanctity of the Missouri House of Representatives. We are here to make our state a better place for our citizens to work and live.

With every vote we take, we must never forget the trust Missouri has put in us. We, as members, expect nothing less than the highest integrity in this chamber and the people of the state deserve nothing less.

Many members have filed legislation that would reform ethical standards. Today, I will create a Special Standing Committee on Government Accountability and Ethics Reform.

Representative LeVota and I are appointing members of outstanding character to this committee; Representative Kevin Wilson and Representative Sally Faith have agreed to serve as Chair and Vice-Chair. The committee also includes: Representatives Bruns, Lipke, Day, Nolte, Brandom, Burnett, Witte, Morris, Walsh and Curls. Their task is simple; I will send all ethics reform legislation to their committee so they may create one, bi-partisan piece of legislation that will restore the public's trust in our Chamber by seeking to remove even the appearance of impropriety.

Regardless of party affiliation we can all agree that the sanctity of this body is important. From this point forward, we commit ourselves to gain and hold the faith that the people of Missouri have in their elected Representatives.

We are also here because we believe in forging a bright future for Missouri, which is first and foremost in our minds when we walk into this chamber each day.

Economic woes threaten to dampen our future. The economic downturn has left no community or household in Missouri untouched. 9.5% percent of Missourians are out of work, and the House of Representatives must continue to lead the way, as we have in the past, towards a complete economic revitalization of Missouri.

There are those who say that the economic recovery will not be tied to job growth. That is unacceptable in Missouri.

We must also work to protect the tools that have been successful at bringing jobs and businesses into our state. This year we must also continue our work helping small businesses. They are the economic engine of Missouri.

The economic recovery of this state and nation will not be carried on the backs of government, but will instead be led by the forces of personal initiative and the free market. Missouri citizens will bring our state to a new level of economic prosperity through hard work; it is our duty to set the framework that allows them to thrive.

One important precept of our state government is that we must spend within our means and we cannot run budget deficits like the federal government. In a time of economic uncertainty we must work together to make the necessary decisions for our citizen's future that will allow Missouri to grow.

I will commit to you one thing: we must NOT and we will NOT raise taxes on working Missourians.

Families across the state are finding ways to stretch their dollars and we will work to follow them. With an ever increasing financial burden being placed on Missourians by the actions of the federal government, we must do what we can to decrease and cut taxes in Missouri.

Fiscal discipline and prudence will become the bywords for this session. The people demand nothing less with their tax dollars, and we will give them nothing less. We will commit ourselves to being prudent fiscal managers of public monies.

Our House is composed of responsible, hard-working members, and I know this will be a productive session that all Missourians can be proud of.

To all members, let us remember we are all here representing the people of our great state, and we all share the same common goal for a strong and confident Missouri that is a great place to live, work, and raise a family.

May God bless you and may God bless the great state of Missouri.

Pursuant to Section 9.141, RSMo, the Bill of Rights was read by Patty Buxton, former Revisor of Statutes for the Joint Committee on Legislative Research.

Ms. Buxton was presented a resolution by Speaker Pro Tem Pratt honoring her for 32 years of service to the Missouri Legislature.

Ms. Buxton addressed the House.
